TAX SEMINAR OFFERED TO THE S. M. CITIZENS

A Tax Seminar, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Property Owners' Association is announced by John Osgood, President. This will consist of three meetings to be held in the Sierra Madre School Auditorium as town meetings, and to which all residents of the city of Sierra Madre are invited. Because of the type of the meetings an invitation is also being extended to all interested residents in the San Gabriel Valley.

The first meeting, Thursday, January 15, will have as speakers Charles A. Skutt, Supt. of Sierra Madre Schools, who will present to Sierra Madre statistical material of our immediate school needs. Also, W. A. Pixley, Managing Director of the Property Owners' Association, the Association which edits Tax Facts and has organized most of the mass protest meetings in Los Angeles City and Los Angeles County. Mr. Pixley speaks every Thursday night over KLLA at 6:30 P. M., and is well known to residents of Sierra Madre.

On February 19 the program will deal entirely with the county charity costs—something like $106,000,000 for the 1947-1948 budget year, and increasing every month we are informed. Arthur Will, Supt. of the United Charities for Los Angeles County, and Chester Hansen of the editorial staff of the Los Angeles Times, who is making an exhaustive comparative study of our costs with those of other areas in the United States, will present different views of this expenditure.

On March 18 Dr. Edwin A. Cottrell of the research staff of the John Randolph Haynes and Dora Haynes Foundation will be the speaker. His research concerns regional administration and the growing problem of multiple governments in our metropolitan area which is three-fold in scope—governmental, economic and social. The Los Angeles Metropolitan Area with its rapidly increasing population (Continued on Page 7)

FIREMEN, CHILDREN MEET SANTA CLAUS

FLOAT FRAME READY FOR DECORATORS

A fine group of workers showed up at Waterworks Park Sunday and completed the frame-work for the 1948 New Year's Day Float and every indication points to a very lovely creation to represent Sierra Madre this time.

The flowers have been ordered, the glue is in stock, the truck is ready and work is progressing preparatory to completion by the Floral workers just prior to the parade.

The 1948 theme is "The Pony Express" and it had been planned to use the horse which appeared on one of the floats in previous years but it was decided that it was too large to be taken for a pony by any stretch of the imagination so construction of a pony is well under way.

Among those on the scene of operations Sunday were Alfred Dewey, Harold Spears, William Estes, Jack Moffat, Al Morgan, Robert Morgan, Jimmie Spears, Francis Eakman, Lloyd Welch, Owey Kiggins, Sam Embree, and many others whose names were not secured. Herbert L. Kelley, the wood carver, and Lloyd C. Howard, local furniture dealer are co-operating with others on the construction of the pony and rider.

An inspector from the Tournament of Roses organization dropped in and spoke very highly of the Sierra Madre entry.

DINNER IS CLIMAX OF LIONS' PLANNING

The Lions Club Ladies' Night and Christmas Party Committee met at the home of Sterling Rippel, Tuesday evening to formulate plans for the festivities Thursday night. They were Dr. Frank Anderson, Carl Peterson, Loren Pratt, Harold Drury and Mr. Rippel.

A moving picture on drilling oil wells was shown by George Bouvier, at last Thursday's meeting.

CANDLELIGHT CAROL SERVICES

The Girl Scouts' Christmas Choir of 100 voices directed by Mrs. Richard O. Richards is giving a Candlelight Carol Service next Sunday, December 21st in Bethany Church at four o'clock. Miss Caroline Brooks will be at the organ and Mrs. M. D. MacAulay will be the pianist. The committee on arrangements includes Mesdames John Ferguson, Wm. J. Rogers, John Haney and Harry Morley.

It is anticipated that this service will be one of the loveliest contributions to the Yuletide season. It will be the climax of many weeks of rehearsals by the girls with their directress, Mrs. Richards, who is living at the present on Suffolk Ave. Mrs. Richards, a valued organizer of musical and dramatic troops for Red Cross entertainment of camps was stationed in Nevada during the war. Later she was associated with 20th Century Fox and Universal. The local chorus has been doing very sincere work under her supervision. The program will be open to the public with no charge and includes:

"Hark, the Herald Angels Sing"; "Deck the Halls," Welsh Air; "The First Noel," Traditional Fr.; "Here a Torch," Traditional Fr.; "Beautiful Savior," Silesian Song; "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," American; "Silent Night," Bavarian; "Away in a Manger," Bavarian; "Angels We Have Heard on High," Westminster Carol; "I Heard the Bells," American Carol; "Shepherds' Christmas Song," Austrian; "Thy Little Ones," Danish Carol; "I Saw Three Ships," English; "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," American; "Lo, How a Rose," German; "Adeste Fideles."

City Christmas Tree Will Be Lighted Tuesday Evening

FIREMEN'S DANCE SATURDAY TO FILL THE CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS

FIRE CHIEF JAMES HEASLEY
Who will turn on City Christmas Tree lights Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Gun Club Elects '48 Officers

Sierra Madre members of the Santa Anita Gun Club have made their qualifications in two recent dates, December 7 and 14, for record shoot at 200 yards. New telephones on the range greatly facilitated the time. Edwin Cutler and Stanley Coutant qualified expert; Oliver Abraham, Elmer Muench and Lawrence Jones qualified sharpshooters; Stanley Fish, Murdo McIvor and Roy Shipway qualified Marksman. The meet was held at Fish Canyon Rifle Range.

The next meeting of the club will be an election of officers held in the City Hall Dugout December 19th at 8 o'clock.

Every child in Sierra Madre has an invitation from the Volunteer Fire Department to come to the Christmas Tree Tuesday evening and welcome Santa to our city. The lights of the tree will be turned on at seven o'clock sharp and soon after Santa Claus will zoom in from somewhere.

Sierra Madreans are more than 27 years old who attended the first city Christmas, the tradition has been carried on continuously since.

FIREMAN'S DANCE SATURDAY EVENING

The Fireman's Dance Saturday evening, December 20th at the Woman's Club will draw dozens of couples who would not think of missing probably the most traditional social event of the year.

Chief Heasley has been a busy man forming committees and checking on dance ticket sales. Arthur Johnson has been responsible for the house committee; Bill Newberry, decorating; Joe Swanson and Vern Udell, favors; Ray Penn, refreshments and Wm. Brown the music.

WHO'S IDEA WAS IT?

Many townspeople and many folks unknown popped their heads in the News office door after the Winter Scene was created around the Old Station and asked "Whose idea was it?" "It's the cleverest decoration in the Foothills." "It is perfect for Sierra Madre," etc, etc. We have been very proud to inform such questioners that Mr. Bill Estes made the original suggestion. But finally we were confronted with a good comeback when a local man called back as he closed the door. "It would be a man dealing in ice to think of all that frigid scene out there!"

Jr. Red Cross Remembers Europe Need

Under the direction of Mrs. Tarup, chairman of the Junior Red Cross, seventy-two boxes of toys, soap, sewing materials and drawing supplies, donated by pupils here in the spirit of world friendship, were packed at the local grammar school this week for shipment to headquarters in New York on their way to needy children abroad.

The Post Office reports 12 outgoing sacks of parcel post to last year's 79, an increase of 47 over last year on December 15, the biggest mailing day this year. Cards and letters increased by 460 making 11,700 compared with the 11,240 of last December 15. Most of the foodstuffs and overseas packages were mailed early, but local mail will still be delivered long after, due to late mailing. WELL KNOWN ART COLLECTOR BUYS A SCOTT PIECE

The still life which Jonathan Scott exhibited at the Greek Theatre a few weeks ago, has come to a happy ending. The piece has been purchased by "Buddy" de Sylva, motion picture producer and art collector of Hollywood.

Recently de Sylva appeared at the Scott Studio and when invited inside scanned the room quickly and walked up to the object of his quest, grabbing it off the wall and said, "I must have it." Mr. de Sylva has recently given a collection to the Los Angeles Museum and owns a modern collection of French paintings internationally known, all of which adds up to the fact that the Sierra Madre artist was appreciated. It is said that the Scott still life fascinated de Sylva and he was very happy to find that the picture had not been taken by another connoisseur.

Local Residents Approach Pasadena on Annexation

According to a Pasadena newspaper, an anonymous group of Sierra Madre residents approached Acting City Manager Robert M. McCurdy to discuss possible annexation of this city to Pasadena. Mr. McCurdy told the Board of City Directors Tuesday. He said the group had requested that he ascertain the city's official feeling as to annexation. He then asked the Board for an expression of its policy on the matter.

Director A. I. Stewart opposed the suggested annexation on the grounds of cost to Pasadena with relatively small returns in the immediate future and also because he believed that there would be strong opposition on the part of the citizens of Sierra Madre, a sixth class city, to being absorbed into Pasadena and losing its identity.

The Board decided to remain neutral and permit the Sierra Madre group to proceed if they desire with neither encouragement or discouragement officially by Pasadena.

The Sierra Madre group either refused to divulge their names or requested that they not be used, as City Manager McCurdy either did not know or if he did, refused to divulge them.

Mayor Steinberger stated that he had received numerous calls from citizens opposed to the proposition, but he refused to consider the episode seriously as it would not be good for Sierra Madre or Pasadena and local taxes would be higher instead of lower.

The NEWS interviewed several of the city's present and former city officials and prominent citizens and it was the unanimous opinion that the people of Sierra Madre would never consent to the proposition and that it would have but few advantages and many disadvantages.

This anonymous and presumptuous group which appealed to Pasadena should in no way be confused with the Sierra Madre Property Owners' Association which in this issue of the News gives a complete program of their study and research seminar, a program of informative lectures by recognized speakers. The Association meetings are open to the public and a record of membership is on file.

SALVATION ARMY PROBLEMS GROW; FUNDS NEEDED

The Salvation Army is finding a difficult situation this year. Applications for aid have increased 40 per cent and street corner collections are down 25 per cent. The underlying premise of the Salvation Army Christmas work is morale building within the family unit. A Christmasless family is a family with a shattered morale.

Many people include needy families in their Christmas list and designate the Salvation Army as an agency through which these gifts may be transmitted. Checks may be mailed to the Salvation Army Christmas fund at 832 West Ninth Street, Los Angeles.

Warning: This article is not written for citrus growers, orchardists or expert agriculturists. Persons in those categories should turn to the sports page and leave this column for the many who don't know a "dew point" from the back end of a smudge pot.

At 8 o'clock each evening through the KFI clear channel station comes the familiar, "Good evening. Following are the lowest temperature estimates—"

And the pleasant voice of Floyd D. Young begins to call the vitally important roll of frost warnings for citrus and orchard communities in Southern Central and a portion of Northern California.

Through the danger period, November 15 to February 25, Mr. Young, regional director of the Weather Bureau encompassing California, Nevada, Utah and Arizona, broadcasts from the Fruit-Frost headquarters in Pomona.

Begun here in 1918, this service is the largest of its type in the country although there are similar broadcasts made in Texas and Florida citrus areas and some few local services.

Value to the citrus and avocado grower is beyond measuring—for these are the nights when an entire crop can be lost for want of proper smudging at the proper time.

With the 8 o'clock warning the grower gets an indication of both time and intensity of the night's temperature drop. Conversely, he is saved unnecessary smudging on nights when a kind wind circulates warm and cold air and prevents the silent savagery of a freeze.

In offices on the second floor of the Pomona Post Office building, the endless work of charting weather goes on under direction of three meteorologists. Against one wall a teletype clock ticks away to itself, recording in code the whimsies of wind and vagaries of rain over the land and out at sea.

Results of this information are used in computing three complete weather charts each day. Thirteen men work in the field, calling in each evening with their localized facts and figures. All this material is co-ordinated by Mr. Young every evening and is, of course, the basis for his broadcast.

The other day Meteorologist R. T. Small illustrated the method of assembling weather information. He displayed charts for some three days before, showing development of a storm in Northern California.

As carefully as a fever graph, the course of the storm was marked as it edged South, developed a second pressure area off land, finally converged on the Southland to bring the first rainfall of the driest year on record.

As he spoke the teletype threw a conniption fit and then was silent. Mr. Small crossed over and tore off the message. He sat down at the current chart and began to put down the new information.

"The storm is filling out and spreading," he said. "Dissipating, maybe?" he was asked.

"Yes. Today and tomorrow there should be just scattered—"

Crack! went the lightning. "scattered showers," he finally said firmly as the thunder rolled around Pomona.

And now to the dew point. So many requests have been made for an explanation of the term that Mr. Young has drawn up a statement which has been liberally lifted here.

The dew point is a temperature at which dew or frost begins to condense out of the atmosphere as the temperature falls on a clear calm night.

"When we say," says Mr. Young, "that the dew point is '45' we mean that as the temperature falls during the night, when it reaches 45 degrees, dew will begin to form on vegetation and other objects exposed to a clear sky."

"If the dew point is '28' it means that no dew will form, but that frost will begin to appear on exposed objects when the temperature reaches 28 degrees."

The dew point is an indication of the amount of moisture in the atmosphere—the higher the dew point the greater the amount of water vapor in the air. Since oranges and lemons start to freeze earlier when they are wet with dew, the grower can take more chances with his protective operations when the dew point is low enough so that there will be no deposit of moisture on his trees.

Now you know.

Be courteous—Be safe.

HARRIS TREE LIGHTED FOR YULE SEASON

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Harris of 734 Fairview Ave., have decorated the live Christmas tree on their grounds again this year. There are more than a thousand lights on the tree and Christmas carols are played every night on the balcony from 7 to 10 o'clock. The tree is a gorgeous spectacle and can be seen for miles down the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Harris invite their friends and the people of the city to make an auto call and hear the music.

Two new members were sworn in Monday night at the City Hall. The young men were Michael Castaneda and Robert Burmeister, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Burmeister of W. Laurel. This brings the unit up to 16.

It was built by Wm. Kreuscher of East Montecito and is expected to last a century. The iron work was forged by G. O. Dailey.

A lych-gate is a development of the English church of the Middle Ages when it was considered necessary to consecrate the body of a deceased member before taking it into the church. So it became custom to have a covered shed called the lych-shed or lych-gate, from the Saxon "lych" or body.

POLICE BLOTTER

A few street lights are reported "out" by Officer Lewis to start this week's Blotter.

A female Cocker Spaniel, bearing a Sierra Madre license, is found far from the city. Licensee reported that he had given the dog to another, who might have away. . . Dogs, dogs, dogs. There were 17 or 18 (more or less) near the rear entrance to the police station, because of the attraction of a beautiful lady canine animal. A call to the police brought Jim Heasley, who reported that many were seen and one was caught. (Didja ever try ketchin' a dog when he didn't want ya ta ketch 'im? Try it.) . . . A child's purse containing 20 cents was found by other children, who in turn brought it to the police station. Now, that's not a bad sign at all. Maybe there are a few children of today who are just as thoughtful and perhaps just as smart as those of the "good old days." . . . Mr. Kinney, 695 West Sierra Madre Blvd., was much surprised to enter his car and find there a fine overcoat, a brief case and other articles that he knew darn well were not his nor were these things there when he parked the car. It was much later after the matter had been reported to the coppers that a man came to the station and identified the stuff as his own. 'Tis a rare occasion when two cars have locks that the same key would open and where a person mistook another car for his own. All are satisfied now, so the case is closed, even the brief case. . . Hi Embree received a report of a lost duck. He failed to tell the boys that the duck was Mallard until he received a report from Rhodes. Rhodes came to the station later. This was his experience. Having heard the report of a lost duck, he was alert as he just finished her hard day's work at one of our local factories, report to us that she had lost two five dollar bills somewhere close by. She thought that she might have lost them along Baldwin between S. M. Blvd. and Highland. She remembered having opened her purse in that location. That's a lot of money for a girl (who works hard for it), to lose. . . Car in ditch. . . Red paint smeared along the streets and daubed on the lights of private drives is the work of vandals who apparently have no sense of cost. Try buying some of that stuff. . . Boy injured in Big Santa Anita Canyon. . . "Man down" turned out to be a former visitor to Judge Eaton's Court. PELZ-SMITH RITES HELD SATURDAY IN ANAHEIM CHAPEL

Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and dahlias, and tiers of white candles graced the altar of the Capilla de San Antonio, Anaheim, when Henrietta Pelz became the bride of Orville A. Smith in an early evening ceremony Saturday, December 13, with Rev. R. A. Young officiating.

The bride, given away by her father, was lovely in a dove grey suit, dove hat, and black accessories, carrying a white satin Bible with an orchid. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koesele of Anaheim, but has lived the past nine years with Mr. and Mrs. Al W. Miller, 550 North Hermosa.

Carolyn Miller, maid of honor, wore a green suit, rose hat, and carried a nosegay of rosebuds and carnations. Best man was John Corn, of Puente. George Tyree, baritone, sang "Always," and "Because."

The ceremony was followed by a buffet wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents

INVITATION TO LIVE THIS WINTER... New winter accident facts, based on research by National Safety Council, reveal alarming increase of skidding and poor visibility crashes during snowy, icy weather. Authorities urge equalized brakes, using tire chains, windshield wipers, defrosters, good lights and lower speeds to minimize the added seasonal hazards of inadequate stop-and-go traction on snow or ice and in reduced visibility.

New Members Dine Monday At Elks Club

Mr. and Mrs. William Lees officiated at the dinner for the new members of the Monrovia Elks Club 1427, Monday evening. Donald Jackson of this city was initiated and taken into the organization. Norman O. Nelson was commended for his fine efforts to secure needed articles for the Disabled Veterans of this valley. Ralph Burns, Ralph Hurwit, Jim Heasley, Fred Krinke, Laurence Brain, George McRoberts, Art Gadd, Joe Swanson and John Froehlich were also present. A letter was read from the Boy Scouts of Sierra Madre thanking the Elks for the use of their dishware, during National Scout Week.

SUSAN COCHRAN'S BETHROTHAL TOLD SUNDAY BY PARENTS

The engagement of Susan Cochran to James McMahon of Pasadena was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, 87 East Sierra Madre Blvd., Sunday. This followed a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillmore of Pasadena.

The groom-to-be is the son of Mrs. Evelyn McMahon and William McMahon of Pasadena. Miss Cochran is a graduate of Pasadena City College and belonged to Philothian Restrictive Club. Her fiancé is also an alumnus of P. C. C. and a member of Zama. The young couple have not yet decided on a wedding date.

CHILDREN EARN OWN MONEY FOR RELIEF GIFTS

The Junior Bees of the Congregational Church (3rd and 4th graders) of the Sunday School earned the money which they sent to the European relief. When the money was turned in their teacher, Mrs. Carl Smith asked each one to tell how he earned his contribution.

The Primary department headed by Mrs. Francis Gentry also earned the money which they sent to the Navajo Trail Caravan.

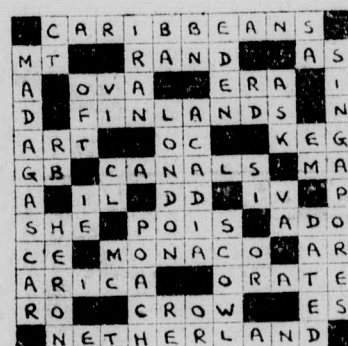

On the highway carelessness can kill.

Sierra Madre Responsive To Navajos

Warm clothing, food, medical supplies and even money have been left at the Police office this week for the Caravan going to the Navajo Trail Relief. This is in response to the appeal made through the News last week telling of the desperate condition in which the American Indians find themselves. Their herds of cattle are gone, unable to find grazing from the highly eroded soil and there are no GI loans to Indians. The first of many caravans left Pasadena last Saturday. Food and supplies will go regularly by truck to the reservations and local contributions may continue to be left at the Police Station, thanks to the courtesy of Chief McMillan.

PHILANTHROPY GROUP PLAN FOR HOLIDAY PARTY

Tomorrow evening, Friday, December 19th the Philanthropy Evening section of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club is giving their annual Christmas party for the small children and friends of the members.

The evening will be movies, Walt Disney, Mickey Mouse projected by Charles Skutt with the school's motion picture projector, followed by ice cream, cookies and a favor for each child in charge of Mrs. George Bouvier, Sr. and Mrs. Bouvier, Jr.

At nine o'clock a semi-formal dance for the teen-age group has been planned with Don Parker at the piano and chaperones Messrs and Mesdames Harold Drury, W. W. Gilder, sleeve, Ralph Cordry, George Bouvier, Sr., Randall Perry, Harry Lange and William Stoddard.

FIRE FLAMES

When the sweetness and kindness of the residents in their attitude toward the firefighters during the ticket selling campaign is considered, it is little wonder that the fellows enter the affair wholeheartedly. People are really nice. The men report the sale as very good and we expect to supply the kiddies with fine stockings filled with goodies at the Tree on Christmas Eve.

There are few who will need food for Christmas. The firefighters will be glad to receive names of needy and worthy folks who might enjoy a well-filled basket of substantial grub. That's our long suit. The ticket selling will end soon. Those who want to buy and have not, can leave their order at the police station. You can rest assured that you will be served in a hurry.

As was noticed in last week's paper, our heroes' pictures were in the paper. We want to thank the NEWS for the recognition of the men who have served so long as volunteer firefighters.

From now until after the Rose Parade the fire fighters will be very busy fellows. An evening will be set aside to fill stockings, while all, who can give the time, will help with the preparation of the New Year's Day Float. Without such help as Vern Udell can give, there would be many more headaches to building a float here. Vern shapes iron as easily as he shapes concrete. His ingenuity is invaluable to the float builders. (Vern is a real fire fighter). And what would the town do without Bill Estes and Harold Spears, a couple of other fire fighters. Fire Flames joins many others in congratulating those who are responsible for the ingenious decoration of our local railroad station. The whole thing is so realistic that when Jim Heasley climbed a ladder to tack some of the icicles so that the wind could not blow them off, he said he froze his fingers. (That's what he said.). Many remarked about the chill reflecting from the scene and of how it reminded them of their homes in the east. All in all it appears as tho' there has been something struck that has met with fancy of many people. There are still, of course, those who can't figure out why Sierra Madre doesn't do something. It has been a marvel to me why we accomplish as much as we do. It is usually done by a few workers who seem to be the goats for everything that comes along. It seems that a certain few originate, collect and pay for all ideas while the remainder stand by, watch and then criticize. Oh, well, we do pretty well at that. None of us would want to live somewhere else and as long as we enjoy our town, there surely can't be much the matter with it.

Fires are occurring in other localities, many of which have been caused by overheated stoves and bad fuses. This can happen in Sierra Madre and to those who heat with light stoves, a word of warning is always be alert for overheating too close to inflammables. At this season of the year, there is danger of Christmas Tree fires. Inspect your wiring for defective insulation. See that your fuses are not substituted with something that will not "blow" when overloaded or shorted. Fuses are your safety "valve" in the switch box and when they "blow," the best thing to do is to learn what caused it to "blow." The worst thing you could do in such an event is to replace the fuse with something not suitable such as a penny. It is unlawful to use other than a fuse. Have your wiring inspected by an electrician who can advise you as to the size of fuse to use. When fuses continue to blow, there is certainly something wrong and it ill behooves any of us to disregard the matter.

Another dangerous performance of early morning Christmas risers is to chase through the house while dressed in night clothes. Keep away from all fires while wearing them as they are very inflammable. We read almost yearly of a child having been burned on Christmas morning from getting too close to a fire while wearing night clothing. If such misfortune should meet you, the best thing to do is to smother the fire with blankets. Cover the fire. It cannot burn without air. Let's think it over and omit any such tragedy from our Christmas. Let's keep the FIRES OUT

SANTA ANITA PARK

The Odds are 3 to 1...

In this democracy of ours the majority rules. Californians by the overwhelming majority of 3 to 1 endorse Thoroughbred racing in the State.

This was established by an independent public opinion poll conducted by Knight and Parker for the Western Fairs Association. The survey represented a cross-section of California opinion.

Those who believe that racing is beneficial to the State advance the following reasons. It furnishes desirable recreation, it affords revenue for the State, it attracts tourists, it creates employment, it brings out-of-State money to California, it affords a new market for merchants.

These are all good reasons. Yet the reasons advanced completely neglect the all-important contributions racing makes to agriculture.

The public is ill-informed regarding one of the principal functions of racing at Santa Anita and other California tracks. Some 99 per cent of California residents favor the fairs conducted in the State. Yet only 3.7 per cent of those interviewed realize that these fairs are supported by the revenues of Thoroughbred racing. The 76 fairs of the State are one of the most powerful stimulating influences for California agriculture, which now ranks first in the nation.

The great majority of Californians realize that such a turf club as Santa Anita cannot support its lavish stakes schedule and its racing plant worth $10,000,000 solely through its share of the pari-mutuel wagering, and that it must look to such items as gate receipts, concessions and parking fees for its margin of profit.

Racing, like the fairs it supports, enjoys the confidence of the public. Public confidence in the sport will be increased when Californians are fully and honestly informed regarding the conduct of racing at Santa Anita and the other tracks of the State.

Claudio Arrau to Appear On NBC Symphony Sat.

Claudio Arrau, piano virtuoso will be guest soloist with the N. B. C. Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Erich Kleiber, when this noted conductor presents the first of four consecutive broadcasts Saturday. Arrau showed such great promise as a child pianist that the Chilean government financed his studies for ten years. Since his sensational debut in 1941 he has rolled up a record-breaking number of engagements. He will play Weber's "Concert Piece."

Most of Kleiber's musical activities have been in Cuba and South America as he left Germany after quarreling with the Nazis.

Also programmed is the rarely played "Symphony No. 2 in B Minor" by Borodin from which themes were taken for his opera "Prince Igor." This work found favor in the Western World before it was accepted by Russian critics and public. The concert will close with "Introduction and Dance," by Manuel de Falla.

Blanche Thebom, mezzo-soprano will be guest on the annual program of Christmas music on the "Telephone Hour." Highlights of the program are the "Hallelujah" Chorus from Handel's "The Messiah," and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach.

The title roles in Massenet's "Manon" will be sung by Bidu Sayao, soprano, Charles Kullman will sing the part of Chevalier Des Grieux, with Martial Singer as Manon's rascally cousin, Lescart. This will be broadcast from the Metropolitan Opera House in New York.

60 cycles
NOT NOW, BUT SOON

Your electrical current will not be changed to 60 cycles for another month or two, (you will receive the exact date in the mail) but we're getting ready for the changeover now. Fifty-cycle meters are being replaced by 60-cycle ones in homes, offices and business places of Edison customers here.

Installation of the new meter does not mean that your frequency has been changed. The meter merely records the current—it does not change the frequency.

When the changeover is completed, Edison customers will enjoy the many advantages of mass production and standardization, now that 60 cycles is the national standard. You will be able to enjoy the various frequency-sensitive devices (record players, clocks, timers, automatic washing machines, etc.) now being produced only for 60-cycle use.

The nuisance and expense of cycle-changing such items if you ever move out of Edison territory will be gone, too, because 60 cycles now is being used in practically all the nation. The change to 60-cycle current is another demonstration of Edison's desire to improve your electric service in every possible way.

DANCE MEANS NURSERY SCHOOL NEW EQUIPMENT

New equipment is in store for the youngsters who attend the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School because of the public support given to the benefit dance held last Saturday evening at the Woman's Club House, the nursery school association reported this week. "The dance was a financial as well as a social success," said Mrs. Dixie Tiller, association president. "As a result, we shall be able to buy several pieces of equipment which otherwise would have remained on the 'want' list for some time to come."

SHORT SKIRTS OR LONG BEARDS . . . Male students at University of Kansas object to the longer skirts now in vogue with their feminine schoolmates and are voicing their disapproval by allowing their beards to grow. Four bewhiskered members of the anti-long dress club are (left to right) Joe Francis, one of the originators of the idea; Carl Steeby, Bill Mabry and David Butler. It's the new look for men.

POSTMASTERS . . . Jesse M. Donaldson (left), appointed postmaster general by President Truman, says farewell to his predecessor in that office, Robert Hannegan, who left the cabinet to take over control of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team.

ATTENTION STALIN . . . The gentleman with the eyes is Dr. Franz Polgar, Chicago hypnotist, who says he could insure world peace in five minutes by hypnotizing world leaders over the radio "if they would let me," he adds wistfully.

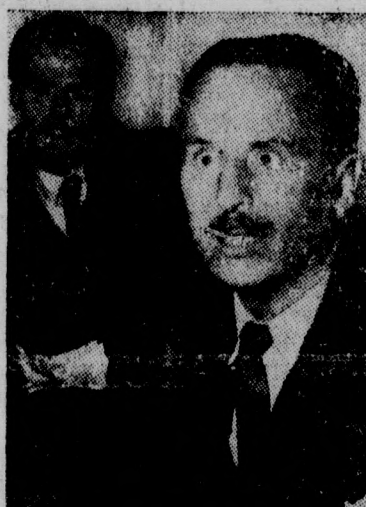

ON THE LONE PRAIRIE . . . Out in the wastes of the Arizona desert, 10 miles from the little village of Window Rock, lies this bleak, simple "war memorial cemetery" where bodies of Navajo Indians have been buried. Navajo Indian Tom Emerson stands before the little white headstones and fluttering stars and stripes to pay his respect to his fellow Americans who fell in the line of duty fighting for their native land.

HO-HUM, ANOTHER RECORD . . . New air speed records are just routine these days. Latest was made by Woody Edmondson, who flew from Havana, Cuba, to Washington, D. C., one hour and 35 minutes faster than anyone else ever has negotiated the course.

OSWALD . . . Sir Oswald Mosley, prewar leader of the British Union of Fascists, staged a postwar comeback, announcing that he will form a "union movement" next year to attempt to win power in Great Britain.

"THANK YOU" . . . This Italian child may not know the English expression, "Thank you," but her gratitude is written clearly on her face as she receives a CARE package of food from the United States.

ASKS CROP DICTATOR . . . Carl C. Farrington, agriculture department official, asked congress for emergency power to buy up entire farm crops when poor yields threaten the domestic economy or the export program.

BASEBALL BUYER . . . Robert Rodenberg, Baltimore and Washington sportsman, said he would pay 2.5 million dollars for the American league franchise of the St. Louis Browns. He would bring the Browns to Baltimore in 1949 when that city's new stadium opens.

FRIENDSHIP TRAINING . . . It's a small-scale "Friendship Train" that trundles down temporary tracks along a production line in the Parker Pen company plant at Janesville, Wis., but it carries a lot of power to do good. The railroad system was inaugurated by employees as a means of collecting funds for Christmas gifts to Parker employees in England. More than 2,000 persons in U. S. plants and offices contributed to the fund.

OFF FOR LONDON . . . Secy. of State George Marshall says goodbye to his wife at Washington airport before leaving for the Big Four foreign ministers' conference on German and Austrian peace treaties in London.

U. S. SAINT JOINS VATICAN GALLERY . . . The 21-ton marble statue of Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini is hoisted to its niche in the gallery of saints of the Roman Catholic church who are honored by statues in St. Peter's basilica, largest church in Christendom. Mother Cabrini, a native of Italy, was a naturalized American citizen and died in Chicago 30 years ago. Canonized in July, 1946, she is first U. S. saint whose statue has been added to the gallery.
